Our Story

On Feb. 5, 1994, the Art City Trolley Restaurant officially opened her doors. After locating the 1931 Brill Bullet Trolley car, Jeff and Kelly Decker along with numerous family members and friends restored and converted it into a small roadside diner that boasted seating for 26 people. Thanks to a supportive community, (and great food), two years later the small diner grew to a seating capacity of 115 with the addition of the "Trolley Station" that stands today.

The original menu has evolved from favorites like the Baby Back Ribs that won "Zagat's Dining Guide" for "Best BBQ in the State" to the legendary Art City Special Salad, or our Carne Asada Quesadillas, to our newest editions of Extreme Mac & Cheese, or the Bleu Hawaiian Chicken Sandwich. As always, we seek the freshest ingredients and original recipes made from scratch here in the restaurant.

Thank you making us your dining choice today!

Family & Staff

Found in an abandoned state in a field in Salt Lake City, Jeff and Kelly Decker purchased the trolley and with the help of family members, restored the car and turned it into the restaurant you know now as the Art City Trolley.

The Brill Bullets were beautiful Interurban Trolleys that were built by the J.G. Brill Company of Philadelphia. They were displayed in Atlantic City in September of 1931. The Fonda Johnstown & Gloversville Railroad Company purchased five of them for $100,000 on September 24, 1931.
